Those armored motor cars spouting bullets would be calculated to increase the Mexican suspicion of Americans.

If this sort of thing keeps up, we shall have to admit that the Barre city council room is located in the temperate zone.

The full report of the recent inspection of Barre's fire protection as made by an engineer of the New England insurance exchange is published in today's paper so that the people of Barre may gain a comprehensive idea of the weaknesses of the system now operative in the city. It is to be taken for granted that the report represents the most rigid demand for improvement along all lines that can be made. As the citizens of Barre set about to consider the report they, one and all, will agree that the general system of protection from fire, while not by any means poor, yet stands in need of improvement in some respects.

Vermont's three higher institutions of learning are well represented in the Vermont troops which left Tuesday for the Mexican border. Col. Ira L. Reeves, president of Norwich university, is the commanding officer of the regiment; John M. Thomas, LL. D., president of Middlebury college, is the chaplain of the regiment; and students of the University of Vermont make up almost the entire membership of Company C. Particular praise should be given to these college boys who have thus given evidence of their patriotic devotion to the nation, besides showing self-sacrifice in giving up a period of time which might have been used for purposes of earning money with which to continue their college courses. The university might well feel proud of their action in going to the front, as was indicated by the action of the alumni association on Tuesday in adopting resolutions which commended the undergraduate patriots at Burlington.

MAY THEY ALL RETURN!

The Vermont troops are off. A week and a day after receiving the first call of the president they entrained and were shortly afterwards being drawn in a southerly direction, with Eagle Pass, Tex., as their destination. They were not the first to leave for the Mexican border but they were among the early troops to leave. The honor of being the first in the department of the East falls to New Jersey, although only a part of the New Jersey troops were moved, while Massachusetts came next with partial enlistment of her regiments. Vermont was only 14 hours behind the leading state in the department of the East and entrained all its available forces. To be sure, Vermont's National Guard is small, as compared with the forces of New York, Massachusetts and New Jersey, but it was whipped into shape soon enough so that it could have been the first to leave had the railroad rolling stock been furnished. In this respect it typified preparedness to a degree which was fully as advanced as that in any other state, albeit admission must be made that time enough was not given to put the men through a strict course of training in marching and hiking that would have put them in the best possible shape for the arduous work ahead of them.

However, the physical condition of the men as regards their general health is reported to be good, so that they will enter upon their grilling work under the southern sun with a fairly good foundation of physical well-being. The men departed in good spirits, seemingly, and were ready to do their part when called upon for service. Vermont expects they will, and the good wishes of the entire state go with them. May they all return!

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all who gave of their sympathy and assistance during our recent bereavement; also for the many beautiful flowers.

Resinol Surely Heals Sick Skins

When you know physicians have prescribed Resinol for over 20 years in the treatment of eczema and other itching, burning, unsightly skin eruptions, and have written thousands of reports saying: "It is my regular prescription for itching," "Resinol has produced brilliant results," "The result it gave was marvelous in one of the worst cases of eczema," etc., etc., doesn't it make you feel, "This is the treatment I can rely on for MY skin-trouble?"

When Resinol Ointment touches itching skin, the itching usually stops and healing begins. With the aid of Resinol Soap, it almost always clears away eczema, ringworm, pimples, or other distressing eruption quickly, leaving the skin clear and healthy. Sold by all druggists.

Use Resinol Soap regularly and you will be astonished to find how quickly it soothes and cleanses the pores, and leaves the complexion clear and fresh.

RADICAL CHANGES

PROPOSED

all times, including meal hours, shall be as follows:
(a) Proposed engine company at headquarters, two men.
(b) Combination company at headquarters, one man.
(c) Ladder company at headquarters, two men.
(d) Proposed combination company at north end, one man.
(e) Companies and Apparatus.

(8) That an engine company equipped with an automobile combined pump, chemical and hose wagon be provided and located at headquarters.
(9) Specifications for automobile pumping engine to be in accordance with the requirements of the New England Insurance exchange and to include the following:
(a) Pump to be capable of delivering at least 500 gallons per minute at 120 pounds net water pressure for a period of two hours; at least 60 per cent. of rated capacity at 200 pounds net pressure for a period of one hour, and at least 18 per cent. of rated capacity at 250 pounds net pressure for one-half hour.
(b) To be equipped with a 40-gallon chemical tank and divided hose body having a capacity of at least 1,000 feet of 2½-inch double jacketed hose.
(c) Motor to be capable of attaining a speed of 20 miles per hour and of covering 20 miles in an hour over paved or macadamized streets having such grades as the apparatus is likely to encounter in actual service.
(10) That the present automobile combination at headquarters be relocated in a new station in the vicinity of North Main and Blackwell streets.

Fire Alarm System.

(11) That boxes installed in the future be of the successive type with silver break contacts with internal mechanism protected against abnormal currents, outer cases and lightning arresters adequately grounded and with glass panel doors, keyless self-acting doors, or doors with key attached. Boxes of interior type now in use to be altered or replaced to conform to the above.
(12) That additional boxes be installed so that a box shall be within 500 feet of every building in the mercantile section and elsewhere within 800 feet of every valuable group of buildings.

Headquarters.

(13) That fire alarm headquarters be relocated in a fireproof building specially constructed and located so as to reduce as far as possible all liability to interruption of service.

Apparatus.

(14) That apparatus in headquarters and fire stations be installed in strict accordance with class C requirements for municipal fire alarm systems as recommended by the national board of fire underwriters.
(15) That the construction and location of outside wires be in strict accordance with class C requirements for municipal fire alarm systems as recommended by the national board of fire underwriters.

Telephone.

(16) That a manual transmitter be installed at headquarters with duplicate break wheels for each box, so that all telephone alarms can be transmitted to the fire alarm system and the same transmitted to the fire alarm system as would be if the alarm had been transmitted from the box.

Fire Department Auxiliaries.

(17) That either state or municipal laws be enacted governing the manufacture, sale, use, storage and transportation of all explosive and inflammable substances of all kinds, including the care of combustible rubbish of all kinds. Requirements shall conform to the suggested ordinance and regulations of the national board of fire underwriters. Enforcement to be by frequent inspection through the members of the fire department.

Structural Conditions and Hazards.

(18) That the building code be revised to conform to modern requirements for construction and fire protection as given in the national board of fire underwriters' standard building code, especially as to improved type of construction, limitation of heights and areas, thickness of walls, protection of openings in roofs and floors, provision for automatic sprinklers and other forms of private protection, and restriction of combustible roofs on all new or repaired buildings within the city limits.
(19) That owners of existing defective constructed buildings which are so located as to offer configuration areas be required to suitably protect roof, floor, party wall and exposed openings and that automatic sprinkler systems be required in all buildings which by reason of their size, construction or occupancy stand out prominently as configuration hazards.

Electrical Department.

(20) That the national electrical code be made by ordinance the standard for all electrical work.
(21) That all new work be inspected both before it is completed and again on completion, and that complete inspection of existing wiring be made at suitable intervals and defects corrected. That a certificate of approval be required before current is supplied to new or altered installations after the complete and final inspection.

Respectfully submitted,
John S. Caldwell,
Engineer.

The Band.

The big rhetorical pyrotechnics were set off while attention was focused on the band. It was a give-and-take affair with Mayor Gordon, Aldermen Reynolds and Shurtliff favoring the now famous shearing party, against Aldermen Healy, Glysson and Bruce, who would carry out the original instructions of the council by signing a contract with the Barre Citizens' band for 16 concerts at $1,000. Developments during the gab cabaret converged at a point where Alderman Reynolds challenged Alderman Bruce's right to vote, Alderman Glysson challenged the right of Alderman Reynolds to exercise the same prerogative, and the mayor threatened to use the veto privilege. Once Alderman Reynolds arose to a point of order and on charges of arbitrary methods were imputed to the chairman of the aldermanic board. Personalities were not spared. If anyone had a hot shot for his neighbor he did not stand on any ceremony in letting go of it.

Mayor Gordon furnished an opening for the revival of the band feud when he quoted an interrogation from H. A. Phelps as to whether the petition presented by citizens two weeks ago had received attention. The petition, it may be recalled, requested the council to contract with the Citizens' band for 16 concerts at $1,000. It transpired that no action had been taken on the petition. The verbal ballistics began to fly when Alderman Healy moved the granting of the petition and the granting of the petition. Later Alderman Bruce was to second the motion, but that move was delayed while Alderman Reynolds attacked the motion on the ground that the time for rescinding action opposed to the spirit of the petition had expired, that is, if he read his Cushing's manual aright. Then there was quibbling over the wording and the alleged intent of the instructions received by the band committee, pursuant to which instructions the committee had reported its failure to contract for 14 concerts by the big band and two concerts by the Christopher Columbus band.

Alderman Reynolds, arising to a point of order, accounted for his action on the ground that the instructions, as they were called, clearly forestalled further action for the relief of the Citizens' band. He was for opening the contract to competitive bids, a course which should be followed in all contracts, he said. Mr. Reynolds intimated that the bid system had not been used by the council always. When the question was called for, Alderman Reynolds again questioned the legality for reasons already stated. As a trump card he challenged Mr. Bruce's impending vote on the allegation that he, as a member of the band, would receive a portion of the money, thereby violating the rule that a city official shall not participate in a contract with the city.

TO HELP SMALL CHURCHES.

Larger Methodist Churches Are to Send Their Pastors for Service.
South Royalton, June 28.—The summer meeting of the Montpelier District Ministerial association was held Monday and Tuesday in the Methodist church here. Twenty-three ministers were present, several ministers' wives and a number of laymen. Just before adjournment, the meeting voted its approval of District Superintendent Sharp's evangelistic program, by which the district will be divided into five sub-districts, of which the heads will be Revs. T. W. Wens of Brattleboro, S. G. Sutor of Proctorsville, F. T. Clark of Bradford, Dr. William Shaw of Montpelier and O. B. Wells of Rochester. The plan contemplates a series of sermons in each of the smaller churches by the pastor of a large church. Reports of the work of the general conference recently held at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., were given by Rev. Dr. William Shaw of Montpelier and S. A. Daniels of Brattleboro, the latter explaining and advocating the proposal to admit laymen to the annual conference. An address by Superintendent of Schools Herbert D. Casey of Springfield on "The Spirit of the Times," delivered on Monday evening, was much enjoyed, and last evening's sermon was by Rev. A. P. Boyd of Woodstock. Rev. L. O. Sherburne and Dr. J. W. Hatch of Montpelier spoke for the conference claimant endowment and Montpelier seminary, respectively.

District Superintendent Sharp presided at all the sessions and Rev. Fred B. Smith of Union Village was elected secretary and treasurer. Other ministers present were Revs. Robert Haseltine of Chelsea, Louis F. Halway of Barnard, Allen S. Charlton of Williamsville, George O. Howe and Guy F. Crawford of Randolph, J. Wesley Miller of Bethel, E. F. Wood of Ludlow, E. L. M. Barnes of South Royalton, Harold C. Hayward of Guilford, Walter R. Davenport of Springfield, S. H. Smith of Bellows Falls, A. B. Enright of South Londonderry and A. W. Atwood of Pittsford. The ministers and others were entertained in the homes of the people of South Royalton. The music of the evening sessions was in charge of Warren B. Tenney.

Very little time was consumed in routine matters. Wiring permits were granted as follows: Masonic fraternity, lodge room lights; Mrs. P. A. Carr, lights at 27 Camp street; C. M. Merrill, house lights at 73 Long street; G. W. Beckley, house lights at 63 Hill street; L. Aldrich, store lights on North Main street.
